Montana Contractors' Association Announces 2020 President, Board of Directors

HELENA, Montana – The Montana Contractors' Association (MCA) announced last week that Bob Warren of Schellinger Construction, Columbia Falls, was voted by the association's membership to serve as President of the MCA Board of Directors in 2020. Warren serves as the Treasurer for Schellinger Construction and has been with the company since 2002. He has been active on various committees within the MCA for over 25 years. Warren grew up in Missoula and attended Loyola Sacred Heart High School, Carroll College, and the University of Montana. He and his wife, Kim, have 2 sons, Andy and Zach, and reside in Kalispell. Warren follows Cliff and Al Schellinger as Past Presidents of the MCA.

In addition, MCA membership elected Marty Schuma of Dick Anderson Construction (Helena) to serve as Vice-President, and Andy Mathison of Casino Creek Concrete (Lewistown) to serve as Treasurer. Newly elected members to the MCA Board include Dave Resch of Knife River (Billings) – Highways, Keith Johnston of Mountain West Holdings (Butte) – Specialty Contractor, and Russ Olsen of R&R Taylor Construction (Bozeman) – Past President.

Rounding out the MCA Board of Directors is Michael Jackola of Hammerquist Casalegno (Kalispell), Cale Fisher of Riverside Contracting (Missoula), Bill Langlas of Langlas & Associates (Billings), Corey Crum of First Interstate Bank (Helena), and Josh Montanye of Williams Civil Construction (Bozeman).

The Montana Contractors' Association, a chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America (AGC), is a trade organization representing commercial, industrial and public works construction firms. Our Mission is simple: We are working together to advocate for quality contractors, people, and projects by providing value and opportunity for our members. Learn more at www.mtagc.org.
